

Arbitration

Overview

BASEAK provides claimants and respondents alike with sound legal advice. Whether your dispute is international or domestic our arbitration lawyers can assist you by providing strategic and pragmatic advice. Our advisors understand your business and objectives and possess a keen knowledge of the rules that govern arbitration proceedings. We have particularly broad knowledge in the oil and gas, natural resources (including mining and forestry), hotel management, financial services, infrastructure and government sectors and will partner with you to help ensure your success.

Our arbitration practice extends to all of the main arbitration forums and rules globally as well as many regional arbitration institutions. We are thoroughly familiar with all post-arbitration procedures, including judicial review and global enforcement matters.

We guide you through all stages of arbitration: from drafting the dispute resolution mechanism best suited to your circumstances through the arbitration hearing and post-arbitration enforcement to recognition of the award.

Our arbitration lawyers are also highly experienced in all aspects of international commercial arbitration and investment treaty arbitration.
